Laurens Community School

Laurens, Iowa

In Memory of --

The enjoyment of our senior year was diminished by the death of our country's late President, John F. Kennedy. President Kennedy's style had a special appeal to youth and thus his death saddened us all the more. Perhaps his sacrifice will lead all of us to especially dedicate our future years to development of our individual lives in a way which will strengthen our nation and thus avert the repetition of such a tragedy.

In Remembrance of--

The work of putting an annual together is a difficult task and in our first months of work we were aided and counseled by Mr. Jerry Chandler. Although we were saddened by his passing away, the work on the yearbook continued. Containing many of his ideas we hope that it will serve as a fitting tribute to a man whom we knew for only a short time but whom we came to care for in a special way as a counselor, coach, and teacher.

In Dedication to - -

The aim of our school is to develop our individual academic and social abilities. In the class room we strive to gain our knowledge from books. In our activities we strive to develop our personalities through our associations with others. Each of our teachers help us along our road to growth in both of these areas but with this dedication we wish to honor the one person whose help we appreciate in a special way.

As our junior class sponsor this teacher guided our efforts as we planned our prom. In the classroom we were challenged and encouraged by this teacher's tremendous knowledge of the difficult subjects which he was teaching. We always knew that extra help was available when a particular lesson proved too difficult.

Sometimes we find it hard to express our appreciation for a job well done. With this dedication Mr. Schmidt, we hope to express a small part of the gratitude which we feel for the help you have given us on our road to graduation.

ADMINISTRATION

I wish to congratulate each senior upon your graduation from high school. Your years here have laid the foundation for the future. Build upon it well, aim high, and success will surely come to you.

Superintendent J. H. Halterman

I am very happy to have had the pleasure of being associated with such a fine group of seniors. I know that you can fulfill your ambitions and live up to your class motto. You have proven your value here at school and you will prove your value to society in the future. Congratulations and good luck.

Principal Jerry G. Hoenshel

Yours is a class of many talents. Your hopes and dreams for the future will be fulfilled, I am certain, if you live each day in constant pursuit of your secret goals or ambitions. Let not a single day pass that you cannot proudly say, "the world is just a little bit better off because of my efforts for this day".

My faith in youth becomes even stronger as I note their growth and maturity throughout high school years. You will be ready when the time to "take over" arrives.

Congratulations and best wishes.

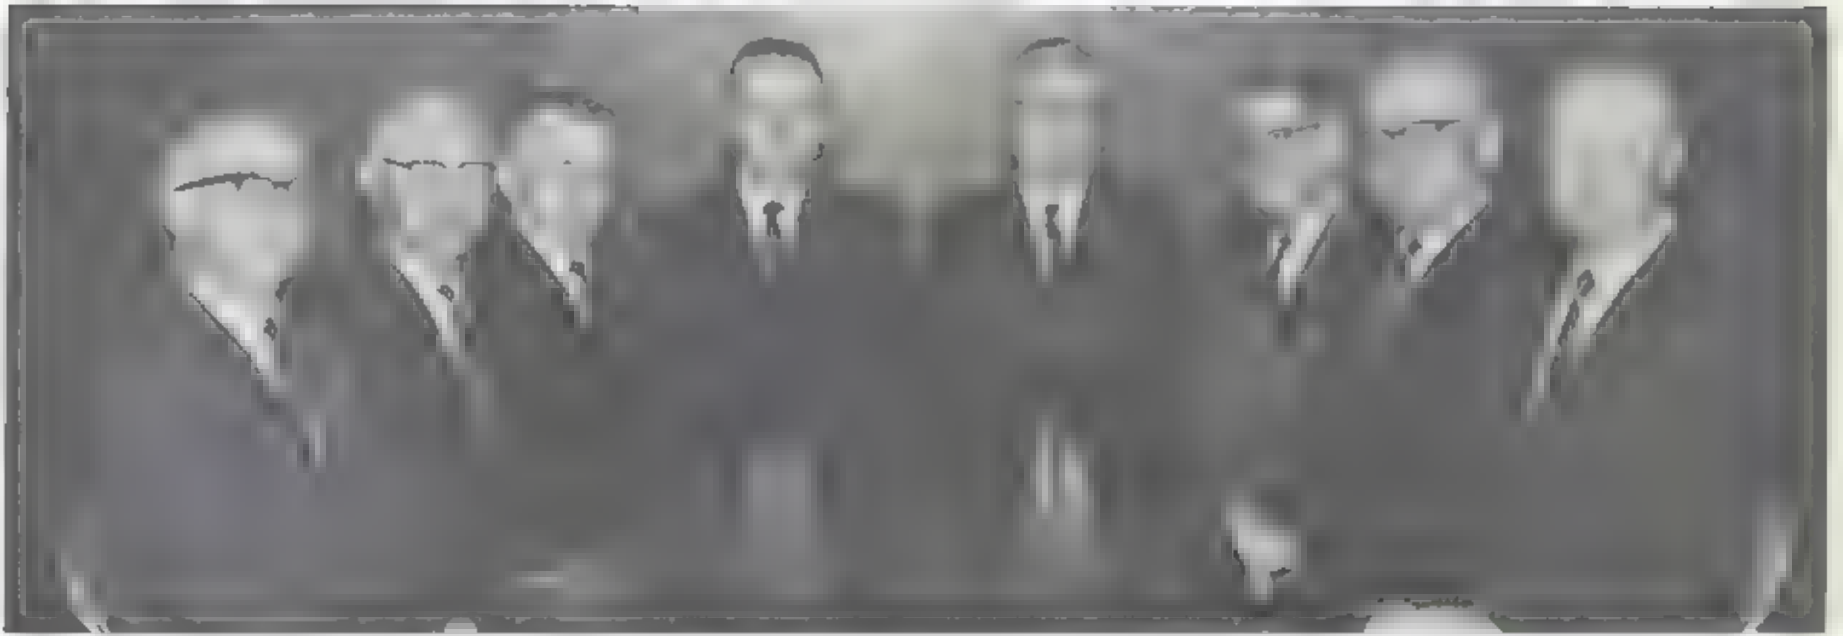

Jr. High Principal Ray Nonneman

Life will reward only those who are worthy of reward, or as Samuel Pepys once said, "He that will not stoop for a pin will never be worth a pound." We all must be willing to stoop for whatever Life may ask of us, whether it be in our family life, work, play, or religion.

Janitors

Bus Drivers

In any smoothly-running organization there are people who day in and day out attend to tasks which sometimes prove tedious but which are always necessary.

Each day we expect the services of our bus drivers, janitors, and cooks and all too often we fail to express our thanks to them. With this page we present the basic foundation of our efficiently-run school.

The biggest step toward victory and a successful team is strong support and vibrant school spirit. Before the height of glory can be reached, not only the cheerleaders but also the team itself and the spectators as a whole must display these qualities. Laurens can be proud of the followings it has had in past years.

Pep Rally for Homecoming 1964

We feel special recognition is due to Miss Johnson, the cheer-leading sponsor, for her time and patience in assisting the cheerleaders.

Y-Teen Activities

Linda Dallenbach was elected to the Planning Committee at Conference.

Ryoko Yasuda of Japan who was visiting the Ducommun family honored us with her presence at our annual formal dance.

The Y-Teen Christmas Formal for 1963 had as its theme "Frosted Fantasy."

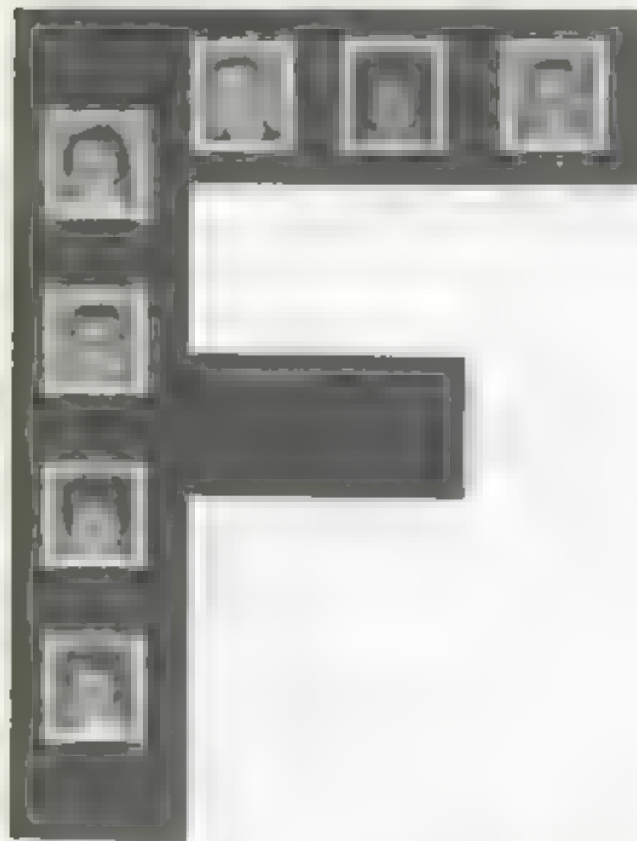

The fabulous "Beatles" were a portion of the entertainment at the Y-Teen slumber party this year.

Patty Zuercher was voted the outstanding Y-Teen of the year. 29

The FFA is an organization of boys interested in farming. The members of this organization will help to feed the hungry population of our world in the future. They are proud of their intended vocation because they know that the American free enterprise system rests upon an effective and stable agriculture. The FFA works toward development of leadership and speaking ability. As can be seen, the Laurens "Tallcorn" Chapter is quite active in many phases of the FFA program.

STANGRILL

Will the real dragon please step forward?

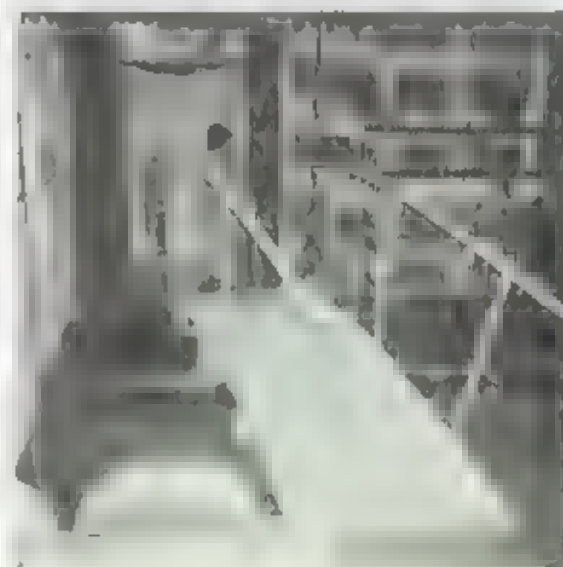

Do your feet have that tired, heavy feeling, Mary Lyn?

I don't know about you girls but I don't trust that thing.

We know we flunked one or two grades, but the fellas could still ask us to dance.

Junior-

I would dance but my legs are deformed.

Hold my hat, will you, Snuggles?

Senior Prom

That isn't where I told them to dump that coal!

You sure have long hair, Rapunzel.

I'm sorry sir but you have three double cavaties.

The exotic valley of Shangri-La was a non-existent idyllic land depicted as a utopia in James Hilton's novel "Lost Horizon." The three-course dinner was served by the mothers of the members of the junior class. Yellow and black streamers and an oriental picture complimented the stairway. Entry to the prom area was through a small garden. This garden had a dainty blue and white sky with twinkling stars. A footbridge arched over a winding blue stream which was studded with lily pads.

Tables were decorated in gold and black with appropriate centerpieces, programs, napkins, and chop sticks. Twelve members of the freshman class dressed in coolie outfits served the dinner. A large pagoda and ricksha added to the dining scene; the east wall was a solid red with "Shangri-La" in large gold letters.

To the north, participants gazed into a garden set with an erupting volcano, Ming trees and Japanese cherry trees in blossom. A stern life-sized Buddha in gold prominently filled one corner. A spot light played on a mammoth silver dragon. This serpent, with large red eyes and fire extruding from his mouth, furnished the background for many camera shots.

Large sliding doors made up the western extremity. These doors, partly open, revealed in the distance scenic mountains, streams, boats and trees.

Hop-sing's Variety Show, headed by Thaine Hopkins, gave a short program. Clyde Lindquist, junior class president and general chairman gave the welcome to the group. Dennis Wright, senior class president, gave a response for the guests. A trio of junior girls and a quartet of junior boys presented two musical numbers with Anita Youngquist as accompanist.

Swing Choir

The Swing Choir is a new group which was added to the music department this year. It is made up of twenty-five select voices chosen by their director Miss Nadine Johnson. These dedicated young people practice at 7:30 every Wednesday morning. The media of their singing tends toward "pop" music.

For the first time, an All-School Musical was presented at Laurens High. The popular Broadway hit "Annie Get Your Gun" was chosen by director Nadine Johnson as the school's first effort in this direction. Over one hundred students were involved in this production which was considered a success from various standpoints. The performance was given two nights and all felt that much was to be gained from this experience.

Prizes for outstanding salesmanship were offered by the LOOK company. Those who sold $25 worth of magazines received a certificate. Fifty dollars worth of sales brought a large dog. For $100 worth of sales a pin was given. The three high individuals had their choice of prizes from different categories of prizes. Kathi received a tape recorder. Sonja picked a hair dryer and Connie chose a radio. Special thanks must be given to Sonja Blake who was manager of the entire drive Magazine sales under the "LOOK Plan" are used to secure funds for production of the yearbook.

To provide incentive the class was divided into two teams. One team was captained by Patty Zuercher and Dennis Wright. The captains of the winning team were Maureen Garner and Gary Roewe. The losing team presented the entertainment for the evening at our senior skip night at Cherokee.
